Members' Juried Show

Juror's Statement - Naomi Brotherton

Thank you for inviting me to judge this exhibition of your very special watercolor paintings. It is an exciting event to see the variety of techniques, color chords, and compositions that keep you moving through to see which stimulates a person the most.

A juror always wants to show the public a good cross section of what is being done in the medium, and this was built into the variety of paintings presented for the judging.

Always keep in mind that the taste of one judge is totally different from that of another. A loser in this show next time may be a winner.

It was an honor being trusted with this responsibility, and I enjoyed seeing the special quality of the works.

Co-Chairperson's Statement - Marie Solon Coerver

Whatever the style, subject or medium; an artist creates from something they feel inside. When a viewer observes the work and is touched inside by the artwork, the artist has been successful. I am humbled to be in the company of this group of successful artists. Thank you to the volunteers who actually put this show together; our juror, Naomi Brotherton; all the artists who submitted paintings; and to the members of SWA for their dedication to the art of watercolor.
